

ANN STEWART, ADMINISTRATRIX.

May 24, 1898.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed.

Mr. DAVISON, from the Committee on War Claims, submitted the following REPORT.

[To accompany H. R. 5476.]

The Committee on War Claims, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 5476) for the relief of Ann Stewart, administratrix of William Stewart, deceased, submit the following report:

The claim is for stores and supplies alleged to have been sold to John W. Campbell, quartermaster Seventh Regiment Kentucky Cavalry, in the months of June and July, 1862, while said regiment was being organized near Cynthiana, Ky. Claim stated at $97.35.

The claim was presented to the Quartermaster-General under the terms of the act of July 4, 1864. That officer decided that at the time of the sale of the stores and supplies the regiment had not been mustered into the service of the United States, and the claim is therefore one which the Government can not pay under the act of July 4, 1864.

The committee find that William Stewart, deceased, the person alleged to have furnished the stores and supplies, was loyal to the Government of the United States throughout the late war, and that stores and supplies, amounting in value to $97.35, were furnished by him to the troops; and your committee recommend the passage of the bill.
